

2.2.1

Details of outcome measures

All the departments in all constituent colleges follow the criteria for slow and advanced learners as per proforma and conduct special programs for enhancing the performance of students.

Details of outcome of individual departments in different colleges are given below.

Outcome Measures for Slow Learners:

Outcome measures are assessed on the basis of performance of students in preliminary examination and subsequent university examination

Outcome Measures for Advanced Learners:

1. Outcome measures are assessed on the basis of incremental performance of students in preliminary examination and subsequent university examination
2. Participation of students in academic and co-curricular activities like seminars, quiz competition, debate and research projects.
